DEATHS AND FUNERALS

C. G. Creshaw.

C. G. Creshaw, a merchant of Albuquerque, who had been in Albuquerque only a short time, died yesterday at his home on East Central avenue. He came here two years ago from Charleston, W. Va., where he was a civil engineer. His father, R. H.
Bauer, was with him when death came. Strong Brothers staged the body on Santa Fe train. Services will be held at Belen.

Funeral services are to be held at Belen.

Stephen Riggs.

Stephen Riggs died yesterday at 10 o'clock yesterday afternoon at his home north of town from Phoenix, Ariz. He had resided in Bernalillo county all his life. The widow and three sons, two of whom live in this county, survive. The third son is at Stevens, Ill. The body was taken to Fred Cruden's undertaking room.

LIEUTENANT RESIGNS FOLLOWING CHARGES

BY MORNING JOURNAL SPECIAL LEADER WRITER

San Diego, Cal., Oct. 5.—Following charges preferred against him by Col. J. T. Baker, United States in chief, unassociated, of conduct unbec oming an officer, First Lieutenant Harold H. Taintor of Company A, Twenty-first Infantry, U. S. A., today sent his resignation to the war de partment, according to announcement made at the regimental head quarters at the Panama-California Exposition by Oberstleutnant Fred Cruden.

Lieutenant Taintor was accused by Colonel Baker of passing checks on a Yuma, Ariz., bank, in which he had no funds, while on a visit to San Diego. These checks afterward were validated by the officer, but not be fore Colonel Baker learned of the matter.
